Welcome to St. Andrew's

We're glad you are here to worship with us today. If you are new, please fill out the information card located in the pew rack and drop it in the offering plate so we may contact you. Please join us for Refreshments and Fellowship in the Parish House after Mass.

Worship

Our Worship service can be found in this bulletin or The Book of Common Prayer, the red book in your pew rack. BCP numbers refer to pages in The Book of Common Prayer. Our hymns and service music are from The Hymnal 1982, the blue book in your pew rack.

Preparation for Worship

In the Anglican tradition, time spent in Church prior to the service should be used for reflection and prayer. This is an integral part of creating an atmosphere of reverence. Please respect the needs of others for this quiet preparation.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated for the Readings and Psalm

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles, the 3rd Chapter beginning with the 12th verse

The people sit.

Peter addressed the people, “You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you.

“And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out.”

Reader: The Word of the Lord

People: Thanks be to God

PSALM: Psalm 4

- 1 Answer me when I call, O God, defender of my / cause; *
you set me free when I am hard-pressed;
have mercy on / me and hear my prayer.
- 2 “You mortals, how long will you dishonor my / glory; *
how long will you worship dumb idols and run / after false gods?”
- 3 Know that the LORD does wonders for the / faithful; *
when I call upon the LORD, / he will hear me.
- 4 Tremble, then, and / do not sin; *
speak to your heart in si/lence upon your bed.
- 5 Offer the appointed sacri/fices *
and put your / trust in the LORD.
- 6 Many are saying, “Oh, that we might see / better times!” *
Lift up the light of your countenance up/on us, O LORD.
- 7 You have put gladness in my / heart, *
more than when grain and / wine and oil increase.
- 8 I lie down in peace; at once I / fall asleep; *
for only you, LORD, make me / dwell in safety.

The people sit.

A Reading from the First letter of John, the 3rd Chapter, beginning with the 1st verse

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God’s children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure. Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Everyone who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

Stand as you are able for the proclamation of the Gospel

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke (24:36b-48)

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus stood among the disciples and said to them, “Peace be with you.” They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, “Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.” And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, “Have you anything here to eat?” They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence. Then he said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.” Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.”

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE FORM VI

BCP p. 392

In peace, we pray to you, Lord God.

Silence

For all people in their daily life and work;
For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

For this community, the nation, and the world;
For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

For the just and proper use of your creation;
For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;
For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy.

For the peace and unity of the Church of God;
For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the Truth.

For Justin Archbishop of Canterbury, Michael Our Presiding Bishop, Sally our Bishop,
Andrew our Rector, and all bishops and other ministers;
For all who serve God in his Church.

For the special needs and concerns of this congregation especially Chris, Russell, Arianna Brown, Scott, Saskia, Jacob, Ginger, John, Linda, Jane, Federal Officers, all those in Law Enforcement and the Military, First Responders, those who suffer from addiction, those who suffer from suicidal tendencies, for all of those affected by the wars in Africa, Europe, and the Middle East, and for all those on our extended prayer list..

Silence

Hear us, Lord;
For your mercy is great.

We thank you, Lord, for all the blessings of this life.

Silence

We will exalt you, O God our King;
And praise your Name for ever and ever.

We pray for all who have died, especially, those who die from gun violence in our country daily, all of those who have died in the wars in Africa, Europe, and the Middle East, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom.

Silence

Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;
Who put their trust in you.

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence may be kept.

Leader and People

Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

The people may greet each other with a gesture or a bow not leaving their pews.

The Holy Communion

Celebrant: Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice of God. Ephesians 5:2

DISTRIBUTION

BCP p. 338

All baptized Christians who are regular communicants in their own churches are welcome to receive the Eucharist. You may receive kneeling or standing. The Sacrament is celebrated using wheat bread and fermented wine; if you cannot receive either for any reason, the Church has taught that receiving the Sacrament in one kind is to receive fully. If you prefer not to receive, you are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing from the priest or remain in your seat.

The ministers receive the Sacrament in both kinds, and then immediately deliver it to the people.

The Bread and the Cup are given to the communicants with these words

The Body (Blood) of our Lord Jesus Christ keep you in everlasting life. Amen.

For those participating via Live Streaming, since you are not able to receive Holy Communion, make an act of spiritual communion during the Communion of those present.

My Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though you have already come, I embrace you and unite myself entirely to you; never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

The Easter Blessing

May Almighty God, who has redeemed us and made us his children through the resurrection of his Son our Lord, bestow upon you the riches of his blessing. Amen.

May God, who through the water of baptism has raised us from sin into newness of life, make you holy and worthy to be united with Christ for ever. Amen.

May God, who has brought us out of bondage to sin into true and lasting freedom in the Redeemer, bring you to your eternal inheritance. Amen.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN'S PRAYER

Almighty God, we pray that you will bless our work in mission and ministry in the world. We give thanks for the gifts of joy and wonder to be found in Your works. Make us so thankful for the power of Your love given through Your Son, Jesus, that we may pray, labor and give liberally to make known that love throughout the world.

AMEN

Our March meeting was held on March 3. We brought donations for Providence House. April will be the first month we donate to the animal shelter. Annabel Johnson will be placing a box outside the choir room. Both dog and cat food are needed. This is a new project introduced to us by Annabel. Just one more way to help our community.

Pauline Bullock gave an update on the Tea Party which will be held on May 4th. She said a sign-up sheet for volunteers to help will be available at our April meeting. The Quilting Club is in the process of making placemats for each participant to take home. What a wonderful idea! The tickets will be $25 for adults and $10 for children.

Marilyn will once again oversee the BAKELESS BAKE SALE in May. We raised over $500 last year. Get your friends and family involved by asking them to donate.

We discussed our June END OF YEAR DINNER. It was decided we would once again have a sit-down dinner. The cost will be $42. There will be a sign-up sheet at the April meeting. Please remember to pay for your meal when you sign up. No money will be collected the night of the dinner. You will also be asked to check which meal you want, stuffed flounder, steak, or chicken parmesan.

The District ECW meeting was held on March 12 at Trinity Church in Vincentown. They began with a beautiful service followed by the business meeting. We had eight women representing St. Andrew's! Great turnout ladies! We will be hosting the May District meeting.

By the time you read this Easter will have passed. I hope you all had a wonderful Easter. I would like to comment on how beautiful the Friday night STATIONS OF THE CROSS were. We are so blessed to have our outstanding bell ringers adding to this. It is beautiful!

Our next meeting will be Sunday April 7th. I hope to see you all there. Encourage other women to join us! We are an active group of Episcopalian women doing what we can to spread God's word and help our church and community in the process!

Blessing to you and yours!
